

Joanne to appear on TV3

Facing the ultimate challenge

Glow magazine in association with TV3's Ireland AM looked for five women, between the ages of 20 and 60+, each to represent a decade from 20 upwards to take part in the Ultimate Life Makeover, which presented a great opportunity for a Carlingford business.

Joanne Kerr from Monaghan has been chosen to represent the 20s category.

This week she experienced an indepth skin analysis and a facial with Marion Cunningham using the exclusive YonKa skin-care range at Pearl Beauty Salon, Carlingford.

Following her treatment she took home her complete home care product range which Marion prescribed her.

Marion, who for almost four years worked in International Cosmetics Clinic, Newry, opened Pearl Beauty Salon, Carlingford in November 2007, was delighted to be chosen by YonKa skin-care to carry out the treatment.

Competition winner Joanne Kerr (left) pictured with Marion Cunningham, owner Pearl Beauty Salon Carlingford.

Marion has developed somewhat of a reputation for YonKa facials, and has quickly established a clientele who travel from far and wide to enjoy the experience.

For a professional skin analysis combined with your very own home care routine or if you would like to experience one of her facials, contact Marion at Pearl Beauty Salon on (00353) 042-9373799.

Tune in to Ireland AM on Friday next to hear how Joanne got on with her facial and home care routine or check out her blog on www.tv3.ie

Pearl Beauty
Beauty Partner For The Ultimate Life Makeover
With Glow Magazine and TV3's Ireland AM

The Argus - February 11, 2009